PURPOSE

The purpose of the Honor Society of Nursing, Sigma Theta Tau International (STTI) Nurse Researcher Hall of Fame is to recognize nurse researchers who are STTI members who have achieved significant and sustained national and/or international recognition for their work and whose research has impacted the profession and the people it serves.

ELIGIBILITY

All active STTI members are eligible. Members of the headquarters staff, STTI Board of Directors, and members of the judging committee are not eligible. Self-Nominations accepted.

CRITERIA

- Integrated scholarship in the researcher's area of specialty and a significant and sustained level of achievement in nursing research which has had broad national and/or international impact on the profession, patients, families, community or policy.
- A distinguished record of publications in nursing and non-nursing peer reviewed journals (first-authored and co-authored and presentations).
- Demonstration of sustained organizational or university research support or external funding.
- Evidence of mentorship of novice researchers with demonstrated scholarly outputs. Evidence includes but is not limited to number of mentees (masters, PhD, novice researchers).
- The researcher's program of research has a measurable impact on policy and/or has promoted quality and value to service delivery. In addition, the research should demonstrate translation to practice.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Supporting documents required below must address the criteria. A complete online nomination consists of:

- Online entry form and payment
- Supporting narrative that clearly states overall area of expertise/impact (1-2 pages)
- Three (3) letters of support from diverse sources
- Nominee's curriculum vitae, plus a listing of 10 publications most relevant to supporting criteria, including nursing and non-nursing peer reviewed publications
- Letter of Acceptance - Statement from the nominee agreeing to attend research congress if selected
- Supporting documentation that provides evidence of nominee's contribution as outlined in criteria (not to exceed 10 pages). Use criteria to frame five subheadings.
